Data are based on a survey of higher education institutions conducted by The Complete University Guide. The survey results have been published annually since 2002, when Mike Reddin first presented them.

Higher education institutions were asked to provide a typical fee, although some institutions chose to provide a range. Figures are for guidance only. Fees for specific courses may vary from those shown. The averages exclude institutions that provided a range.

Some figures for MBA courses have been updated by Times Higher Education using information from universities' websites.

A dash (–) indicates that a figure was not supplied or that the university does not run the course. Universities providing no data have been omitted.

In Wales in 2015-16, Welsh-domiciled students will be charged £3,810 a year wherever they study in the UK. Students domiciled in Northern Ireland will pay £3,805 a year if they study there, but will pay up to £9,000 if they study elsewhere in the UK. Scottish students pay no tuition fees in Scotland, but up to £9,000 elsewhere in the UK.
